MOOSE PARADE
GREATEST EVER

Chairman Brisbois Announces That Scores of Automobiles Will Participate in Big Event of July Fourth Celebration

Chairman Brisbois, of the Moose day parade committee, announced yesterday that there is now every assurance that scores of automobiles will be entered in the event, for which three prizes have been offered. The owners of automobiles are daily volunteering to spare no pains in the decoration of their cars all in hope of winning the grand prize. Oscar Irvin, Hudson agent, said yesterday that he was going in to win the handsome cup offered as first prize. George Hageman said that the first prize couldn't possibly go to any car but the Franklin. The Studebaker and Overland agencies both are anxious to demonstrate how easy it will be with the aid of a few trimmings to take down grand prizes.

There are going to be nearly 1000 Moose in the parade. Moose from Ray, Hayden and Winkelman are coming down more than 100 strong. Mesa will send a delegation of about the same size. Vulture is expected to send a large number. There is information to the effect that many members of the Tucson lodge will be in attendance. Phoenix will turn out from 700 to 800 of its nearly 1,000 members. It will be a parade that will be long remembered among the fraternal orders of the state.

All the committees of the Moose day celebration are busily engaged these days. The program committee announces that there will be pleasing sports both in the water as well as upon the track. The motorcycle contests will be unique. The modified marathon from the Y. M. C. A. to Riverside park will attract no end of attention. The Moose Midway will be one of the big features of the day and the $1,000 fireworks display at the park will exceed anything of the sort seen here in years.

There will be so much doing on July 4 in Phoenix, under the auspices of the Moose, other organizations and the Riverside park management it would take columns to tell of it all. A complete program of the sporting events will be published in a few days. It will be a surprise to even the most optimistic.

FINANCE AND MARKETS

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH]
NEW YORK, June 24.—On a volume of business much in excess of recent averages, today's stock market resumed in marked manner the downward trend which began on the previous day, largely, it is believed, as a result of the decision rendered earlier in the week by the supreme court in the intermountain railway issues, and declines ranged from one to almost three points. The weakest stocks were New York Central, St. Paul, and Baltimore and Ohio, which were freely offered with little support.

The budget of news included the passing of the "Panhandle" common dividend, with a reduction of the rate previously paid on preferred. The "Panhandle" which is controlled by the Pennsylvania, fell abruptly before the action of the directors became known and closed with a net loss of seven points.

Copper metal fell off sharply abroad, and further price shading was in effect here.

Bonds were weak, with a decline of six points in International Pumps 5s. Other speculative issues suffered material losses. Total sales represented a par value of $2,646,000.

ADDED EVENTS
FOR MOTORBIKE
BENEFIT NIGHT

Manager Glass of Columbia Puts His Two-Speed Think Engine to Work, and It Fires on Every Cylinder

Anybody who knows anything about Phoenix knows full well that there is more musical, vaudeville and dramatic talent in this community than in any other its size in America, and that the "creme de la creme" will be presented at the Columbia Monday night in combination with the regular excellent program to aid the Motorbike club for their Phoenix-Preseott race, the popular playhouse should be capacity tested at both performances.

Will the usual ten, twenty, thirty admissions be increased for this big fun jubilee? Hardly! That isn't the Columbia's or Motorbike club's method of doing things, yet to ask a dollar would be none too much if the entertainment is to be judged by the usual standards.

Can you, dear reader, imagine a more exciting stunt than that of a motorcycle racing against a trained swimmer on a theater stage? But that is exactly the kind of a race Manager Glass promises for this occasion. Nor is that all—far be it from such, but a full list of the remarkable features cannot be published in today's paper, but who and every one of the added acts will be head-liners. Every loyal citizen of Phoenix should be down to see the Motorbike club street-parade Monday evening, 7:30 sharp, and then follow them into the Columbia and be seated for the first show.

It is encouraging to the Motorbike club to be informed that several of the largest business blocks will be gaily decorated for this event, although nothing more has been asked than that those who enjoy a good show lend their presence—and come early.

The showing that will be made at Prescott on July Fourth will be a creditable one, and will bring to Phoenix unlimited advertising and the good fellowship of people from every section of Arizona, and will also create an interest in the forthcoming state fair which is sure to result in bringing many additional hundreds here in the autumn.

Boost for the Phoenix Motorbike club and you boost for your own and your city's progress!

ANTI-NARCOTICS UP FOR CONSIDERATION

W. C. T. U. Meets This Afternoon and Holds Reception Tonight for Prominent Temperance Workers

Anti-narcotics is the subject for consideration at the meeting of the W. C. T. U. to be held this afternoon at 2:15 o'clock at the headquarters on West Monroe street. The program will be under the direction of Mrs. C. F. Michaels. This will be the last regular meeting of the season.

A reception will be held by the members of the organization this evening at 8 o'clock at headquarters, in honor of a number of prominent temperance workers of the state, including Hon. Eugene W. Chaffin, twice candidate for president on the prohibition ticket; Mr. and Mrs. Grady Gamage of Tucson, state lecturers for prohibition; Dr. W. W. Shook of Flagstaff; G. F. Rinehart, superintendent, and J. O. Saxon, assistant superintendent of the temperance federation, and members of the executive committee of that organization. A cordial invitation is extended to the public.

ESCAPED CONVICTS
ARE STILL AT LARGE

Of Three Who Got Over Wall Two Are Uncaptured

(Special to The Republican).
FLORENCE, June 24.—All efforts to trace or capture the two Mexican convicts who made their escape from the penitentiary here on Sunday evening have so far proved unsuccessful. It is thought that they have taken a straight course for the border. A negro who was in the plot and who made his escape at the same time has been recaptured and brought back to the prison.

The three men escaped about eight o'clock by climbing over the wall. Sheets were torn into strips, and a rope made from these was tied to a heavy hook, which was thrown over and secured on the outside. The attempt was not discovered until the men were outside the prison enclosure, and making their way across the desert.

AMUSEMENTS

The Coliseum
As far as vaudeville is concerned the old reliable seems well able to hold its own, for the present week's bill is only a repetition of the success attained by the one of last week, and if anything it is even a trifle better, taken all in all. The opening turn belongs to Billy Cross, who makes much of a monologue and dance. The Walter Sisters, with "the act dainty," are a very charming couple of young ladies, who can both sing and dance to no small degree. Their work is received with favor. Woodley & Patterson, in "The Summer Flirtation," offer a breezy line of comedy which pleases many. The feature attraction, however, is the Chas. and Sadie Mac Donald company of four people in "Cafe De Luxe." This act is really worth while, and handled in a most novel manner and scores a big hit. A special drop and stage setting add much to their work.

The Avenue
The American invasion of Vera Cruz, showing the fighting in the streets, men falling before the camera, the effects of the American bombardment, the fleet in the harbor, the scouting cruise of the American aeroplanes, Mexican prisoners working under the direction of armed guards—all this is shown in the Pathe Weekly, which headlines the bill for today and tomorrow at the Avenue. "In the Northland" is a touching story of love and devotion in which the quaint French-Canadian hunter is the center figure. Being a story of ice and snow, it is more than ever appealing at this time. The comedy, music, "The Tango Flirt" is too good to spring in advance. A program without a flaw.

The Emores
It is agreed by all who have seen "An American Citizen," that the production is the last word in screen plays. Mr. Barrymore, who is known the world over and needs no introduction, is the star of the piece, and perhaps he was never seen to better advantage than in the title role of this famous comedy. His portrayal of the leading character, Herford Cruzer, is handled with a naturalness and reality difficult to resist, and throughout the entire play he is not only true to his country and his flag but to his public as well. His support is strong, in fact much stronger than is found in most silent dramas. The entire cast might be termed all star, but it remains for John himself to carry away the titular honors. When one stops to reason for a moment, the opportunity of seeing Mr. Barrymore at his best is one not to be missed. It is spoken of frequently in theatrical circles, that in all likelihood he will never again pay his respects to the west. The film will be shown tonight for the last time. As a special added attraction on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, the management has booked that famous team of dancers, Rubio and La Paz, direct from the city of Madrid. This clever pair of performers have gained much recognition abroad with their interpretation of the Argentine tango, Spanish and Gypsy dances, and their engagement is much looked forward to. Senora La Paz is possessed of much beautiful wardrobe, which in itself is well worth seeing.

Columbia Makes Hit This Week.
Headlined by a tabloid grand opera of four artists, ably supported by three other exceptionally clever acts, Ford Sterling comedies, animated weekly, and good music, the Columbia show this week provides an hour and a half of solid entertainment and real vaudeville satisfaction.

With scenery and electrical effects that present a touch of refinement and color, Frank Hubbard & company contribute a select feature of melody, song and dance that compelled one to believe that it might all be a dream of a century back, and the locale that of the old missions in California. "The Bells of San Gabriel" is a peep into the romantic long ago, but its wholesome sentiment and love-making is that of today—and all of the tomorrows of the future, so long as men and women remain as they are. These twenty minutes of grand opera are crowded with excellent entertainment, and the large audiences of last evening showed its enthusiastic appreciation.

Dancing Collins. "The boy with the funny feet," does things in a capital manner, and his impersonations of famous dancers calls for one round of applause after another.

The Savolas are trapeze and tight artists of exceptional ability, performing thrilling feats on the wire that the average wire artist would hesitate to do on the platform, and not from lofty pinnacles.

"The Gypsy Players." Charles and Leah Wheel, play 16 different instruments in 15 minutes, which was lengthened as they were at least fifteen encores. The mere fact of being able to play so great a variety of instruments does not enter into the fact as much so as that what they do is well and pleasingly done.

The Ford Sterling comedies and the animated weekly are always interesting, and the orchestral concert was above the average.

If the standard of the Columbia vaudeville as seen last night is to be maintained, there will be no doubt as to the enlargement of the house, as practically every seat was occupied last night.

See the Stiletto
Frank E. Woods, the author of "The Stiletto," which is shown at the Lion theater today, knew his subject well and Courtney Foote, who plays the leading role portrays the part to perfection. It's a story of the Vendetta and contains a great number of thrilling situations that are cleverly handled. The custom officers certainly do have lots to contend with, especially to prevent the smuggling of diamonds and in the majestic offering today at the Lion, called "Clear Duties," the smugglers have been hiding diamonds in cigars to evade paying duty. How they were captured makes a mighty good story and one that will be enjoyed. "The Fatal High C" is the name of an extremely funny, rapid fire Keystone comedy and is the winnow of a good program at the Lion. Keystone comedies are made for fun only and that they fulfill their mission in life is exemplified by the pleased audiences at the Lion. Don't fail to see "The Fatal High C" for it's worth while.

The Regale.
"The Black Mask," an exceptionally interesting "101" Elson, two-reel drama, with Grace Cunard and Francis Ford, is today's feature offering at the Regale theater, 219-212 East Washington street. This is one of those films that give promise of more than ordinary interest, with numerous situations that are bound to interest and entertain. "The Wheel of Life," is a single-reel Nestor drama, of the usual high order of Nestor offerings. "The Juvenile Kidnappers," a Frontier comedy, is guaranteed to drive away the blues and send patrons of the Regale home with smiles on their faces. No cooler place is to be found in the city than the Regale.
